The Giessendanner Book of Record was first kept in German, then English. In 1749 Rev. Giessendanner returned to England and was admitted to Anglican church orders. Upon his return to Orangeburgh, he re-copied
some of the prior entries into a format more in line with earlier Catholic parish registers. (See Theresa Hicks' article in OGS-GS Newsletter Dec.
1993). Sometime, there are a variances in information. Therefore, my indication (list after England). In my opinion, the best and most complete translation can be found in THE CAROLINA GENEALOGIST by Dr.
Lothar L. Tresp, University of Georgia. He states that the translation by
Rev. Dr. Bachman, about 1850, in Salley's History of Orangeburg Co., SC
contains many errors.

Admittedly, I am NOT a Salley expert. However, the William Yon that married Ann Friday Salley in East Florida is my line. It is possible that Henry (Jr.) bapt. 10 Oct 1723 married (1st) Magdalene Huber 29 July 1744, had at least two children, and Magdalene died 25 Feb 1760. Henry (Jr.),
at the age of 61, married (2nd) Ann Friday on 5 May 1784 and they had at least four children. Henry (Jr.) died in 1804 and his widow, Ann Friday
Salley then married my William Yon. The Will (25 Nov 1802) of Henry (Jr.)

Gene,
Could you explain what the "list after England" means when used with the Gissendanner records. Did he keep one list while the Revolution was going on and change it at a later date?
In Olin Salley's book it says that Magdalene Huber married Henry Salley(1723) on July 29, 1744. Also mentioned the birth of a daughter to them 12/16/1752. It also shows this same Henry Salley as married to Ann Friday 5/5/1784 and then fathering 4 additional children. Maybe there is an extra generation with another Henry Salley that married Ann Friday. I've corresponded with a Felder decendent that feels that may have happened in that family. Of course it could be that there were two Magdalene Hubers.
I really intended to get to the meeting in Orangeburg but it looks like I may not be able to so I plan to go ahead and send in my dues to GSGS.
